

ASKS $50,000 BALM FOR HEART WARRIOR WOUNDED.

Actress Sues Married Treasurer of Steamship Line for Wasted Affection.

LEONA RAYMOND

Leona Raymond, an actress, wants $50,000 damages from Lieut. Howard K. Clover as balm for a wounded heart. She bases her claim for damages on the failure of the lieutenant to keep his promise to marry her.

Miss Raymond does not know where Mr. Clover is, and her attorney, Frederic Werner, of No. 21 Park Row, has asked Justice Beach, of the Supreme Court, for an order for the services of the summons by publication. Efforts to find Clover recently have been unsuccessful, though registered letters addressed to him at Tampa, Fla., are received for by J. N. Clover, his father.

Miss Raymond says that she first met Lieut. Clover in Baltimore a year ago, when she was appearing with a theatrical company. She is beautiful and his wooing was ardent. He claimed to be unmarried and asked her to be his wife. She consented and yielded to his pleadings.

Some time later Miss Raymond told Clover that there were reasons why the marriage should not be delayed. Then, she says, he told her that he had a wife from whom he was separated, but not divorced. He said that when he secured a divorce he would redeem his promise.

Clover Never Came Back. About a month ago Mr. Clover went away on one of the many trips he took. He said that he was going to Tampa, Fla., and since then she has not seen him. Lieut. Clover is the secretary and treasurer of the Clover Line Company, which owns a large fleet of tramp steamers. He acquired his title by service in the navy during the Spanish-American war.

Miss Raymond has many letters which she will introduce when her suit comes to trial. The letters breathe deep affection, though the spelling at times does not accord with the views expressed by

COURT LECTURES OFFICER.

Says Standing on a Corner Is Not a Crime.

Magistrate Durack discharged two seventeen-year-old boys who were before him in the Butler Street Police Court, Brooklyn, today, and said to Officer Stevens, who had arrested them:

"Standing on a street corner is not a crime, and I have written to Deputy Police Commissioner Cullen telling him that the police can find more important work than in arresting boys who have committed no offense."

"Before you make another such arrest bring the complainant to court and let him sweat out a warrant."

SWEET BREATH

A test was made to find if just the leaving off of coffee alone would produce an equal condition of health as when coffee is left off and Postum Food Coffee used in its place.

A man from Clinton, Wis., made the experiment. He says: "About a year ago I left off drinking coffee and tea and began to use Postum. For several years previous my system had been in wretched condition. I always had a thickly furred, bilious tongue and foul breath, often accompanied with severe headaches. I was troubled all the time with chronic constipation, so that I was morose, in disposition and almost discouraged."

At the end of the first week after making the change from coffee to Postum I witnessed a marvelous change in myself. My once coated tongue cleared off, my small appetite increased, breath became sweet and the headaches ceased entirely. One thing I wish to state emphatically, you have in Postum a virgin remedy for constipation, for I certainly had about the worst case ever known among mortals and I am completely cured of it. I feel in every way like a new person."

During the last summer I concluded that I would experiment to see if the Postum kept me in good shape or whether I had gotten well from just leaving off coffee. So I quit Postum for quite a time and drank cocoa and water. I found out before two weeks were past that something was wrong and I began to get constipated as of old. It was evident the liver was not working properly, so I became convinced it was not the avoidance of coffee alone that cured me, but the great value came from the regular use of Postum."
